Why I wrote this book ix

A: Getting started 1

1 Learn children's names – fast! 2
2 Keep it personal and encourage aspirations 3
3 Establish classroom routines 4
4 Start as you mean to continue 5

B: Core skills 6

5 Build positive relationships 7
6 Watch your language! 8
7 Set up pair and group work effectively 9
8 Choose and use activities wisely 10

C: Classroom management 11

9 Organisation is key 12
10 Adopt a positive approach 13
11 Use praise with care 14
12 Manage behaviour strategically 15

D: Lesson planning 16

13 Plan in sand, not stone! 17
14 Focus on learning outcomes and success criteria 18
15 Aim for variety and balance 19
16 Plan in learning cycles 20

E: Learning how to learn 21

17 Integrate the development of learning strategies 22
18 Encourage active reflection on learning 23
19 Conduct regular learning reviews 24
20 Involve and inform parents 25

F: Storytelling 26

21 Select suitable stories 27
22 Make the most of the storytelling process 28
23 Exploit stories for learning (but don't spoil the pleasure!) 29
24 Go beyond stories 30

G: Playing games 31

25 Competitive or cooperative? 32
26 Have games up your sleeve! 33
27 Use games to practise all skills 34
28 Minimise the management risks 35

H: Values education 36

29 Be aware of your role 37
30 Focus on values close to the child's world 38
31 Use a tool kit of values activities 39
32 Promote effort and resilience 40
