ALL IN A DAY'S WORK

Who are your heroes? We aren't talking about superheroes like Superman or Wonder Woman; we want to hear your opinions about real people who make big differences to other people's lives while they do their jobs. So, tell us about the people you think are heroes because of the amazing things they do every day as part of their work.

Theo

Paramedics – the people who drive ambulances and help in medical emergencies – are my everyday heroes. The other day, my grandpa had a bad fall. I tried to help him, but I couldn't do it by myself, so I called an ambulance. It arrived almost immediately and the paramedics helped Grandpa right away. They were very professional and worked quickly, but they were also friendly and cheerful. By the time Grandpa was in the ambulance, he was relaxed and smiling again.
Every time paramedics go out, it's an emergency and often a serious situation. Think how many people that team has helped already and how many lives it's saved!

Caitlin

My neighbor, Anna, is a firefighter and she does an incredible – and dangerous – job. Firefighters don't just put out fires, they also help in all sorts of emergencies. Anna's rescued people from rivers, helped people stuck in the snow and she often has to go to traffic accidents. Firefighters have to be brave, smart, and good at working on a team. As well as saving lives, they teach people how to prevent accidents. She says every day at work is different: even on quiet days, they have to be ready for action. Firefighters often take risks in order to rescue people. I really admire them for that.

Jodie

I live on the edge of a big city and until last year there was nothing for teenagers to do. Kids hung out on the streets and some of them got into trouble. Then Jonas, a youth worker, arrived and everything changed!
He's positive and easygoing, but he's also serious about his job. He wants to help us discover our talents – "Be curious!" he says. He's organized a lot of new activities for us, from songwriting to rock climbing! I can honestly say he's made an enormous difference to our lives. We have interesting things to do now and a cool place to go in our free time. Jonas is our hero!

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

READING

1 Read the article. Write the names of the jobs under the photos.

2 Read the article again. Write A, B, or C next to the sentences.

This everyday hero …

0 has a lot of variety in his/her job. B
1 works with young people. ☐
2 helps teenagers during their free time. ☐
3 is interested in people's health. ☐
4 often works in frightening and dangerous situations. ☐
5 tries to introduce teenagers to new ideas. ☐
6 helps to make people get better. ☐

3 CRITICAL THINKING Read the questions and circle the best answers.

1 What do the everyday heroes in A, B, and C have in common?
A They all save lives.
B They all help other people.
C They all change people's lives.
Because …

2 What are the personalities of the everyday heroes in A, B, and C like?
A They're caring and reliable.
B They're friendly and popular.

DEVELOPING Writing

A description of a person I know well

1 INPUT Read the text that Poppy wrote about her friend Liam. Match the pictures with three of the paragraphs.

I'm writing about my friend, Liam. I've known him for three years. We met when he moved to a house on my street.

He's a little older than me, but I always feel like he's much older! I think that's because he's very confident. He isn't afraid to disagree with adults. For example, I've never said, "No, I don't agree," to an adult, but Liam has! I admire him for that.

Another good point is that he's very honest. If he doesn't like something, he says so. He never says, "Oh yes, it's great," just to be the same as everyone else. In fact, this is why some people at school don't like him very much, I think.

Does he have any bad characteristics? Yes! He's forgetful. Last week, he promised to come to my house and help me fix my bike. But he didn't come. I waited, then I called him. He's honest, so he said, "Oh, no! I forgot. I'll come right now." And he did. He arrived with a big smile, saying, "I always forget. Sorry." How could I be angry?

I hope we're going to be friends for a long time.

2 Read the text again. Match the paragraphs (A–E) with the topics.

0 Not-so-good things about Liam [D]
1 The first good thing about Liam [ ]
2 Final comment [ ]
3 Introducing Liam and how they met [ ]
4 Another good thing about Liam [ ]

3 ANALYZE Which adjectives describe Liam? Check (✓) three.

1 polite [ ]
2 honest [ ]
3 intelligent [ ]
4 confident [ ]
5 forgetful [ ]
6 talented [ ]

4 Look at the three boxes you checked in Exercise 3. What examples does Poppy give to show that these adjectives describe Liam?

1 _____
_____
2 _____
_____
3 _____
_____

WRITING TIP: describing a person

- Introduce the person. Give his/her name and say when and where you met.
- Explain why you like him/her. Use different adjectives to describe his/her personality (good and bad points!) and give examples.
- Finish with a comment about your friendship or your hopes for the future.

5 PLAN You are going to write about a person you know well. Choose a friend or a family member and write a plan. Use the Writing tip to help you.

Introducing the person
_____
Good and/or bad things about him/her
_____
_____
Final comment
_____

6 PRODUCE Write your description in 150–200 words. Use your notes from Exercise 5.

B1 Preliminary for Schools

LISTENING

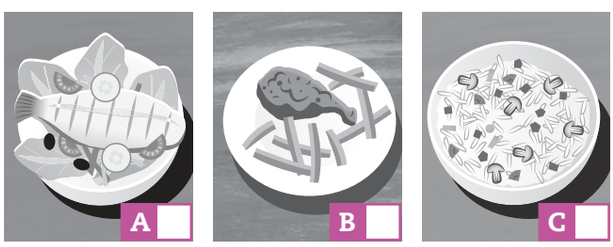

Part 1: 3-option multiple choice

1 1.05 For each question, choose the correct answer.

1 What's the weather like now?

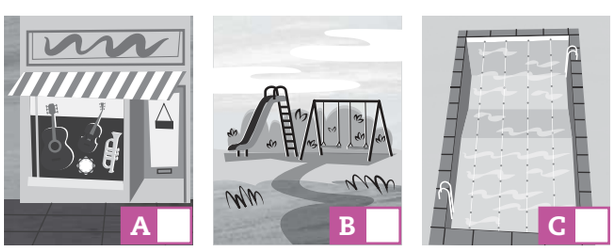

2 What are they going to have for dinner this evening?

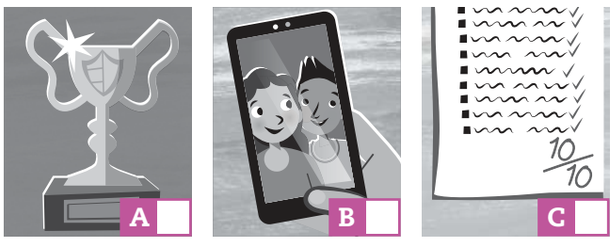

3 What job does the boy's aunt do?

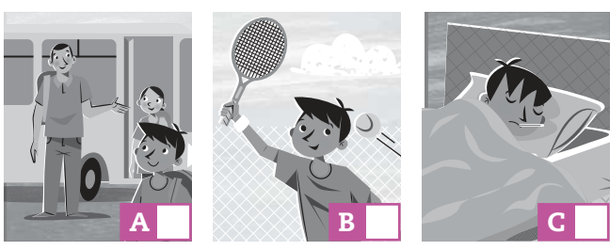

4 Where is the boy going to go first?

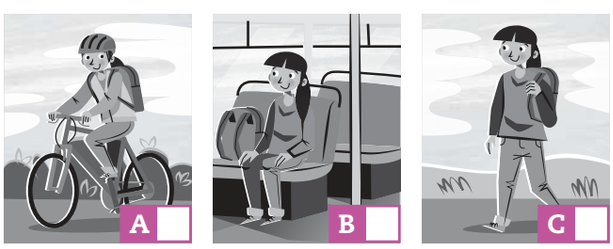

5 Why is the girl excited?

6 Where's the boy today?

7 How did the girl travel to her friend's house?

EXAM GUIDE: LISTENING PART 1

In B1 Preliminary for Schools Listening Part 1, you listen to seven short recordings. For each one, you have to answer a question by choosing one of three pictures.

- Read the questions carefully.
- Look at the three pictures and find similarities and differences between them.
- Identify the situation in each picture and think about the words you might hear.
- You will probably hear words from all the pictures, so don't choose a picture just because it contains the first word you recognise.
- Listen carefully to the dialogue and try to understand exactly what the speakers say about the things in the pictures.
